

SOCIAL PURPOSE INNOVATORS

Social Purpose Innovators is a unique program developed by the Social Purpose Institute at United Way to help businesses uncover or refine their core societal reason for being.

It is an interactive, cohort-based experience that is designed to guide companies through the journey of determining and articulating their best-fit Social Purpose. The Innovators Lab sessions run as a 12-month peer collaboration of 8 to 10 like-minded, values-based businesses. Here, participants work with each other and expert facilitators through a proven process of research and ideation to develop the company's enduring north star.

As a visionary leader whose company constantly strives for strong values and integrity, you can steer your company to further success by defining and bring its Social Purpose to life.

A RAPIDLY GROWING TREND IN BUSINESS

The evidence is growing: businesses that adopt a Social Purpose at the core of their business model are performing better in terms of market growth, customer value, and employee engagement. Social Purpose is a quickly-emerging business driver — it helps companies stand out from their competitors and opens new opportunities to grow the company.

A Social Purpose equips your company to weather turbulent times and rebuild faster. In this time of crisis, your company's Social Purpose becomes its north star. It guides decision-making, drives competitive advantage, and creates resilience.

"We were skeptical going into the program as we already had a great track record in social responsibility -- but we were hungry to have a more meaningful impact. The Social Purpose cohort helped us get clear on who we are, what our social impact is, and how we can focus on social purpose to accelerate our business strategy and organizational success."
